

Food & Bake Sales

The Lebanon Host Lions Club of Turkey will raise US$5,000 (US$500 per-member average) by making and selling jams of local fruits and packaging them in CSFII-labeled jars.

The Elkhart Lions Club of Indiana, USA is focusing their members' efforts on personal pledges, but is raising funds through events as well. The club sells "Lion Tails," a play on the popular "Elephant Ear" bakery treat often found at North American festivals and fairs. The club plans to raise US$8,000 through the Lion Tails sales that will go toward the club's total CSFII goal of US$34,400 (a per-member average of US$400).

What's your Lions club doing to help save sight through CSFII?
